Terms for membership – Initiative Associate Members.

- Initiative associate members are stakeholders from the complete supply chain that are interested in the Initiative, want to stay updated and are dedicated to promote it.
- Initiative associate members will contribute to the Initiative by paying a sponsorship fee.
- Initiative associate members receive regular updates of the work and progress of the Initiative. They are encouraged to promote the Initiative across the value chain.
- Depending on their expertise, individual companies within the initiative associate members can be approached by the technical project manager and the (technical) working groups (under the LT) to support and provide their input on specific activities.

Further details regarding the Initiative membership, structure and conditions are outlined in the HolyGrail 2.0 Charter.
